Investment Highlights

A premier, name-brand manufacturer of thousands of customizable exterior and interior ceramic tiles

Intent upon capitalizing upon China's urbanization trend, rising GDP and people's preference for real estate ownership

An build-out of plant capacity since 2010 enables higher utilization when market conditions improve

Motivated distributors and direct company sales to large developers drive revenue

Modern plant and R&D enables competitive advantage; new glazed brick ceramic tiles for roofing complements portfolio

Sustained Gov't support of the real estate and construction sectors as it estimated to comprise 15-20% of China's GDP

China's Macroeconomic Environment

- The Chinese economy is undergoing a structural change, transitioning from manufacturing to services and from investment to consumption.
- GDP grew by 6.7% in 1Q 2016, in line with expectations, and the weakest since 1Q 2009
- A resolution of credit growth and a deleveraging of local government debt require reforms which could potentially slow growth in the short run.
- President Xi Jinping and senior leaders are expected to enact wide-ranging structural reforms including reforms to stem corruption and spur domestic consumption.

China's Real Estate Market Environment

- Real estate is estimated to be 15% to 20% of China's GDP and so a healthy real estate sector is important to China's growth.
- Average new home prices in 70 cities rose 6.2% y-o-y in April 2016, the 7th straight month of gain & the fastest rise since April 2014.
- Interest rates were lowered 5x in 2015 to free up capital for mortgage lending.
- In early February 2016, the Central Bank cut the minimum mortgage down payment for first-time buyers from 25% to 20% as a way to increase sales in third and fourth tier cities where inventories of unsold housing remain are at record levels.
- in late February 2016, the Central Bank cut the reserve requirement ratio by 0.5% to encourage banks to increase lending which could help to spur real estate activity.

Urbanization Trend Provides Underpinning to Real Estate Construction China

- China's total urban population reached 731 million in 2013 vs. 450 million in 2001; according to projections, nearly 70% of the population will live in urban areas by 2035.
- The scale and pace of China's urbanization trend is unprecedented: 219 cities of more than 1 million and an aggregate urban population nearing 1 billion are projected by 2025
- Tier I cities are expected to account for only 10% of China's commercial real estate activities by 2020, highlighting the significant development opportunities in Tier II and Tier III cities

A Long-Term Trend of Strong Real Estate Growth in China

- The scale of construction in China is immense: the expected future increase in cities is equal to the residential floor space of a number of European cities today
- CCCL believes that sound underlying demand for housing is sustainable throughout the next decade; a correction should be short-lived
- There are fewer restrictions by municipal governments in Tier II and Tier III cities
- CCCL believes that the land supply in 2016 in Tier II and Tier III cities will rebound and will create demand for ceramic tiles
- Central government initiatives stipulate for 36 million new affordable housing units by 2015 at a cost of nearly $800 billion
- Renovation and upgrading of existing properties will also spur additional demand

Competitive Landscape

- China's outdoor ceramics tile industry is highly fragmented with hundreds of manufacturers; CCCL estimates its current market share in China to be 5%.
  - The Company believes that more than 200 manufacturers are located in Jinjiang, with a combined annual production volume of 70% of China's total production volume
  - Others are mainly located in Foshan, Zibo, Linyi, and Dehua, specializing in manufacturing interior wall and floor ceramic tiles
  - Competition is based on quality, branding, service and product diversity, CCCL's strengths
  - Major competitors include:
    - White Rabbit Ceramics (est. 5% share (1))
    - Jinjiang Tengda Ceramics Co. (est. 3% share (1))
    - Fujian Jinjiang Xielong Ceramics Co. (est. 1% share (1))
- (1) of China market

Key Market Trends

- China's long-term urbanization trend – CCCL a prime beneficiary
- Government policies support the real estate sector – rate cuts, lower down payment requirements and property sales have spurred recent activity
- New products – New outdoor ceramic tiles products are “Green”, lighter, heat insulating and noise-reducing. In 3Q15 announced new production line to manufacture glazed brick ceramic tiles - deepens the portfolio even more.
- Potential of Tier II and III Cities – CCCL believes that much of the growth in China's GDP is being driven by economic activity in Tier II and Tier III cities.
- Distribution and Direct Sales – China's outdoor ceramic tile industry relies heavily on distributors; an estimated 73% of total sales are made through distributors. As competition intensifies, more manufacturers will bid for large projects in an attempt to sell products to real estate developers directly.
- Stricter Environmental Standards – Exits by smaller competitors to occur as less well-financed companies cannot comply with stricter environmental regulations.

Core Competitive Advantages

- Experienced management and a culture of hard work and success
- Premier brand – repeat winner of “Asia’s 500 Most Valuable Brands” award among many other awards and certifications
- R&D – the 20 person team develops new products and an energy recycling system that reuses excess heat and energy that saves up to 20% of cost
- Manufacturing that is modern and efficient: ISO certified, international manufacturing equipment utilized where nearly all projects are built to order
- Enhanced marketing and sales abetted by a state-of-the-art product showroom that emphasizes CCCL’s superior capabilities. 3Q15 announced additional enhancements of Hengda Exhibition Hall which should drive sales to a potentially consolidating large property sector.
- New subsidiary formed to transact with large entities such as China State Decoration Group Co., Ltd.

Company Growth Strategy

1) Gain Market Share as a Result of the Industry Shake-Out of the Last 2 Years

A significant number of competitors could exit the space due to a tougher competitive environment and new energy guidelines.

2) Leverage Customization Capabilities due to Modernized Plant Efficiencies

Enables accessibility to the company's customized and innovative product offerings

3) Penetrate New Markets using Tier II and Tier III Marketing Experience

Urbanization coupled with demographic changes will remain compelling domestic trends for years to come

4) Focus on Remodeling and Renovation of pre-1998 Built Residential Units

Massive growth in upgraded units is expected as personal incomes can now afford better infrastructure and expansion of traditionally small units.

5) Capitalize Upon Expected Consolidation Among Large Property Developers

The company's deep product platform, modern manufacturing capabilities and strong balance sheet enable it to optimally service larger customers
